MEMORANDUM FOR

THE HONORABLE BROCKMAN ADAMS
Secretary of Transportation

Tim Kraft advises that the President will accept one commencement invitation this year. Your invitation to the Coast Guard Academy Graduation will go on the list from which a recommendation will be made. Thanks.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'R. Hutcheson', is written over the typed name.

Rick Hutcheson
Staff Secretary

Memo from me to Sec Adams

ACTION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Attention: Mr. Rick Hutcheson, Staff Secretary

From: Brock Adams

Subject: Invitation to Coast Guard Academy Graduation on May 24, 1978

It gives me great pleasure to extend to you, on behalf of the Department of Transportation, the United States Coast Guard, and the United States Coast Guard Academy, a most cordial invitation to present the graduation address to the cadets of the Class of 1978 on May 24, 1978.

I believe that your presence would be highly appropriate this year since no President has addressed the Coast Guard Academy graduating class since 1964.

The commencement exercises climax four very important years in the lives of these cadets, who will then begin their careers as Coast Guard Officers in service to our country. Your presence at the Academy in New London, Connecticut and your presentation of the graduation address would be an inspiration to the cadets, their families and their friends.
